

INTERNATIONAL CONVERSATION CAFE

The discussion guidelines were developed in response to international students request for English help outside of the classroom. Informal times of discussion provided opportunity to read, listen, and speak with Americans in a stress free situation with no tests or required attendance. The format also caused natural friendships to form between students and Americans. The categories, Bible and Lifestyle, were developed in response to students interests.

International Conversation Cafe